3 INTREPRETATION

The interpretation of this Constitution, and any By-Laws created under this Constitution, shall be in the sole determination of the Committee, whose decision shall be set aside only by resolution at a general meeting of members.

3.1 Severance

If any provision of this Constitution, or any phrase contained herein, is invalid or unenforceable, the phrase or provision is to be read down if possible, so as to be valid and enforceable, and otherwise shall be severed to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability, without affecting the remaining provisions of this Constitution.

3.2 The Act and Saving Proviso

3.2.1 The model rules created under the Act are displaced by this Constitution and accordingly do not apply to the Club.

3.2.1 In the event that any matter arising is not provided for by this Constitution then the Act and associated Regulations shall prevail.

4 OBJECTS

The objects of the Club shall be:

4.1 To encourage, promote, develop, and conduct the sport of water polo;

4.2 To co-operate with any person, club, association, WPWAI, WPA and such other groups as may from time to time be concerned with, interested in, or desirous of, involvement in the development or promotion of water polo;

4.3 To provide social activities for its Members;

4.4 To pay subscriptions to and comply with the requirements, Constitution(s) and any regulations or by-laws made by WPWAI and WPA from time to time so that the Club may be affiliated with them;

4.5 To represent the interests of its members and of water polo generally, including in any appropriate forum, as determined by the Club; and

4.6 To do all such lawful things as may appear to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects or any of them.

5 INCOME AND PROPERTY

5.1 Sole Purpose

The income and property of the Club, from whatsoever source, shall be applied solely towards the promotion and achievement of the objects of the Club.

5.2 Payments to Members

No part of the Club property or income may be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, to Members of the Club, except in good faith in the promotion of those objects, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent payments:

5.2.1. made in good faith of honorariums to officials as approved from time to time by the Club at a General Meeting;

5.2.2. relating to remuneration of any Member for services actually rendered to the Club;

5.2.3. for goods supplied in the ordinary course of business;

5.2.6. of out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the Club or any other reasonable expenses properly incurred by the member on behalf of the Club.

6 POWERS

For the purposes of carrying into effect the objects of the Club, the Club shall be conducted in accordance with this Constitution and the powers of the Club shall be:

6.1 to promote, manage, conduct, co-operate and engage in water polo competitions or such other sports orientated events as may from time to time be considered desirable;

6.2 to appoint members of the Committee who's function shall be to manage the affairs of the Club on behalf of the Club and with the powers as herein provided or as shall be determined by the Club from time to time, with power to appoint from Members such additional officials or other committees as may be considered expedient in the attainment of the objects of the Club;

6.3 to select players, teams, coaches and other officials to represent the Club at meetings, functions, events or in competitions, State or National, or for such other purposes as may be considered expedient or desirable;

6.4 to appoint, employ, remove or suspend, full or part time staff, coaches, managers, administrative officers, workers and such other persons as may from time to time be considered necessary or desirable for the purposes of the Club;

6.5 to make, impose, amend, rescind, interpret and enforce By-Laws, rules or regulations on matters authorised by this Constitution, together with sanctions or penalties for the breach thereof, and in particular on matters concerning or incidental to membership, use of or entry to the Club Premises or on such other matters as may be considered from time to time to affect, be necessary for or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Club;

6.6 to impose, enforce, amend and repeal penalties, including but not limited to, suspension, disqualification or expulsion on any Member for committing any breach of the Constitution or any By-Law, or who shall have caused or engaged in unbecoming conduct which, in the opinion of the Club, is prejudicial to the better interests of the Club or which has brought the Club or the sport of water polo into disrepute;

6.7 to call for, receive and deal with reports from the Committee, or such other officials, committees or Members as shall be deemed necessary or expedient;

6.8 to keep and maintain full, complete and up-to-date records of all matters pertaining to the Club, including such accounting records as correctly record and explain the financial transactions and position of the Club:

6.9 to purchase, manage, take on lease, hire or in exchange or otherwise any lands, buildings, property, both real or personal, which may be requisite for, conducive or incidental to the attainment of the objects of the Club;

6.10 to do all things necessary to comply with the Deed of Lease;

6.11 to enter into any contract agreements or arrangements with such governmental authorities, persons, organisations, groups or otherwise as may be conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Club and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, obligations, rights or privileges arising therefrom;

6.12 to invest and deal with moneys of the Club not immediately required in such manner as may be permitted by the Act or as may be otherwise authorised from time to time by the Club;

6.13 to raise or borrow moneys and to secure the payment of money by charge, mortgage or in such manner as the Club may think fit and to undertake or secure the repayment, satisfaction or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other undertaking incurred or entered into by the Club in any way in pursuance of the objects of the Club;

6.14 to improve, manage, develop, exchange, sell, lease, gift, dispose of or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Club;

6.15 to take or cause such actions or steps to be taken as may from time to time be deemed expedient for the purpose of obtaining, procuring, increasing, or maintaining contributions to the funds of the Club by way of sponsorship, subscriptions, investments or otherwise;

6.16 to buy, sell, hire or otherwise deal in such kinds of goods, equipment, apparatus, plant, apparel or provisions as may from time to time be required by Members or persons frequenting the Club Premises or as may be considered conducive to the attainment of the objects by the Club;

6.17 to resolve at a General Meeting to award an honorarium to any officers or Committee members of the Club; and

6.18 to undertake and or do all such things and activities which are necessary, incidental or conducive to the advancement of the objectives of the Club.

7 MEMBERSHIP

10.2 The term of office on the PAC of the President and the Secretary shall be whilst they hold those respective offices of the Club, and of the Foundation Members Representatives shall be for the term of their respective lives, provided that:

10.2.1 Should any of the Foundation Members Representatives notify the Secretary in writing of his unwillingness to continue as a member of the PAC or become ineligible to be a member of the PAC on the grounds set out in clause 9.6 hereof (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to PAC) then the Secretary shall give to the Pool Foundation Members not less than seven (7) days written notice of a meeting to elect a replacement member, or members, of the PAC and such replacement member or members shall be elected by the majority vote of those Pool Foundation Members present and voting at such meeting and shall take office as a member of the PAC from the conclusion of such meeting, whereupon the retiring member(s) shall cease to hold such office;

10.2.2 Should no, or insufficient replacement members, be elected at such meeting by the Pool Foundation Members, then the Secretary shall call a General Meeting, in the manner herein provided, for the purpose of electing a member to the vacancy on PAC as a replacement for the retiring member(s), and thenceforth that position, or positions, on the PAC shall be elected from within the members annually by the majority of members at the AGM.

10.3 Matters, applications or enquiries received by the Club pertaining to the use of the swimming pool, facilities or Club Premises shall be referred by the Committee to PAC for consideration and determination.

10.4 At any meeting of the PAC, a quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be not less than three (3) members.

10.5 The President shall preside as Chairman at meetings of the PAC, provided that if the President is not present, the PAC members present shall elect a chairman to preside over that meeting.

10.6 The PAC shall meet for the dispatch of business, adjourn or otherwise regulate its business, as it thinks necessary and proper and any questions arising at a meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, each member having one vote, provided that in the case of equality of votes the chairman shall have a casting vote.

10.7 The PAC meetings may be called at any time by the President provided that each member of the PAC is given not less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the meeting, save and except in the case of emergency or urgency, The President shall convene a meeting of the PAC within seven (7) days of being so requested by not less than two (2) members of the PAC.

10.8 The PAC shall cause minutes to be made of:

(i) names of persons present at all meetings; and

(ii) all proceedings and resolutions made at all meetings.

10.9 All resolutions of the PAC shall be reported by way of minutes to the next ensuing meeting of the Committee.

11 GENERAL MEETINGS

11.1 General Meetings shall comprise AGM's and Special General Meetings.

11.2 A quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a General Meeting shall be ten (10) eligible voting Members and no business shall be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the time the meeting proceeds to business.

11.3 The President shall preside as Chairman at all General Meetings, provided that if the President is not present or is unwilling to act, the Vice-President shall preside, but if he also should be unable or unwilling to act, the members of the Committee present at the meeting shall by majority vote elect a chairman to preside at that meeting.

11.4 The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present, or shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, (but for a period of not more than fourteen (14) days), but no business shall be transacted at any reconstituted meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting adjourned and unless a quorum is present when such business is transacted.

11.5 If within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for a General Meeting, whether original or adjourned, a quorum is not present, then such meeting shall. if convened by petition of the Members, be dissolved and all matters of business proposed or left unfinished shall be deemed not approved or withdrawn, as the case may be, and in the case of all other such meetings, the meeting shall be adjourned for a period or further period of not more than fourteen (14) days, and shall be so adjourned until a quorum is present.

11.6 In the event of a General Meeting being adjourned, the Secretary shall cause notice of the adjournment and the time, place and date fixed for the adjourned meeting, to be given to all persons and Members eligible to receive notice of such meeting.

11.7 Business at General Meetings shall be decided by the majority vote of eligible voting Members present, provided that the Chairman shall have a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes. A resolution put to the vote shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, either by the Chairman or not less than two (2) eligible voting Members present.

(a) The Disciplinary Tribunal shall be formed of three members, one of which must be the President of the Club, and are appointed by the Committee.

(b) The remaining members of the Tribunal may be Members of the Club but must not be in any way involved in the matter, or have a perceived or actual bias in favour or against any the Members concerned.

(c) The Disciplinary Tribunal may conduct its hearing how it sees fit, so long as procedural fairness is afford and the person(s) the subject of the allegation have an opportunity to be heard, including calling witnesses or relying on written submissions, and be given due consideration before the conclusion of the hearing process.

(d) The Disciplinary Tribunal must produce a written report to the Committee at the conclusion of their hearing outlining the findings of the hearing.

17.1.6 Disciplinary Action and Finalising Process

(a) Once in receipt of the Disciplinary Hearing report, the Committee may take any action, which it deems fit, appropriate and reasonable given the matter, including no action.

(b) The Committee must provide the person(s) subject of the disciplinary process written notice of the Committee's decision, including outlining any disciplinary action, within seven (7) days after the Committee meeting in which the decision is made.

(c) All disciplinary action takes effect immediately from the date resolved by the Committee, unless the Committee so otherwise determines.

(d) Suspended Members have their voting rights suspended for the whole duration of their suspension.

(e) All complainants, as well as other persons subject to a disciplinary process, shall have the outcome of the process outlined and confirmed in writing by the Club.

(f) Any member that has disciplinary action imposed by the Committee is not entitled to any form of compensation, refund, rebate, relief or credit from for any suspended membership, loss of other rights or other outcome by the Committee.

17.1.7 Appeals

(a) An appeal to either the Committee's findings and/or disciplinary action may be lodged within fourteen (14) days of receiving written notice of the outcome of the disciplinary process.

(b) All appeals shall be determined by the membership at the next General Meeting.

(c) The Disciplinary action of the Committee shall stand until otherwise overturned at the next subsequent General Meeting, unless the Committee deem it appropriate and just to impose alternative interim measures until the General Meeting has heard and determined the appeal.

17.2 Disputes Arising Under The Constitution

17.2.1 The following procedure is for the resolution of disputes between a Member and another Member(s) or between the club and its Member(s) relating to this Constitution.

17.2.2 Commencing

(a) The parties to the dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within fourteen (14) days after the dispute has come to the attention of the parties.

(b) If the parties to the dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within fourteen (14) days any party to the dispute may start the dispute procedure by giving written notice to the Secretary, which must outline the parties to the dispute and the matters that are the subject of the dispute.

(c) Within twenty-eight (28) days after the Secretary is given the notice, a Committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.

(d) The notice given to each party to the dispute must state;

(i) When and where the Committee meeting is to be held; and

(ii) that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both) submissions to the Committee about the dispute.

(e) If the dispute is between the Club and a Member, or multiple members, and any party to the dispute gives written notice to the Secretary stating that the party does not agree to the dispute being determined by the Committee and requests the appointment of a mediator, then the dispute in dealt in accordance with subclauses 17.3 below.

17.2.3 Determination by Committee

(a) At the Committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the Committee must give each party to the dispute, or the party's representatives, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submission (or both) to the Committee about the dispute; and

(i) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and

(ii) determine the dispute.

(b) The Committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the Committees determination, and the reason for the determination, within seven (7) days of the Committee meeting at which the determination is made.

(c) A party to the dispute may, within fourteen (14) days after receiving notice of the Committee's determination, given written notice to the Secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator, as outlined below.

(d) If notice is given under subclause 17.2.3 (c) each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.

17.3 Mediation
