

SEMESTER 2 2014 COLLEGE COLOURS

BROOKE CAPEWELL: Citation for Honours – Budjar

HOUSE

Brooke, has made an outstanding contribution to Budjar House through her unwavering enthusiasm, support and commitment to a wide range of House based activities, from Sporting events to the role of Chapel Captain. She is a quietly passionate, dedicated student who leads by example giving generously of her time, and energy, organising House events, motivating and encouraging others, and can always be relied upon to get involved beyond her own participation. Brooke's positive attitude, active contribution and willingness to be involved in all aspects of the House make her an outstanding leader and role model for other students.

SPORT

Brooke has displayed outstanding achievement and commitment to a variety of areas within sport. Her commitment & achievements in Swimming, Cross Country, Athletics, Hockey & Touch have exemplified her positive attitude and always giving her best. This was evident over the last 5 years with Brooke achieving 5 consecutive ACC All Stars & a State Selection (2011) in Cross Country. Brooke is a fantastic role models for all students in this area

CURRICULUM

Brooke is a fine academic role model to other students in the College. She exhibits commitment, determination and persistence in her pursuit of her mastery of knowledge and understanding. She strives for excellence in each of her academic courses and is working very hard towards achieving the challenging goals she has set for herself.

GEORGIA DOWN – Citation for Honours - Budjar

SERVICE

Georgia is a highly motivated, committed and compassionate person who has embraced various service opportunities at Tranby College on an ongoing basis. Georgia has been involved with the Disabled Surfers' Association, the Salvation Army's Red Shield Appeal, UnitingCare West Homeless Sleep Out and most recently, Georgia became a volunteer tutor with The Smith Family's Learning Clubs at North Parmelia Primary School. She is reliable, committed and genuine in the way in which she approaches service inside and out of the College. She has demonstrated sound leadership skills by the way in which she has encouraged her peers to participate in Service events and I have also been impressed with Georgia's personal quest to raise awareness of Diabetes at the College. She is a role model to her peers and most deserving of accolades for her commitment to this area.

House

Georgia has made an outstanding contribution to Budjar House through her on-going enthusiasm, support and commitment to a wide range of House based activities, from Sporting events to the Philosothon and Chapel Services. She is a quietly passionate student who leads by example giving generously of her time, and energy, organising House events, motivating and encouraging others, and can always be relied upon to get involved beyond her own participation. Georgia's positive attitude, active contribution and willingness to be involved in all aspects of the House make her an outstanding leader and role model for other students.

ARTS

Georgia has a strong work ethic and continually strives to be the best she can and to improve with each year. She has made a valuable contribution to the arts whilst at the College both in lessons and in her co-curricular involvement. She contributes with enthusiasm and is both committed and dedicated to continually improving both hers and the performance of others. She is always supportive and encouraging towards her peers. Georgia is an excellent role model.

BETH WESTERN: Citation for Honours – Karla

HOUSE

Beth has made an enormous contribution to Karla House during her time at the College. She enthusiastically participates in any activity that will assist the House and encourages others to do the same. Beth's eagerness to be involved, her encouragement of others and her passion for Karla House make her an outstanding role model for other students.

ARTS

Beth has a strong work ethic and continually strives to be the best she can. She has made a valuable contribution to the arts whilst at the College both in lessons and in her co-curricular involvement. Even though she no longer takes classes in the Arts, Beth has continued to donate her time through her involvement in Set Design and other artistic endeavours. She does this with enthusiasm and is always supportive and encouraging towards her peers.

SPORT

Beth has displayed great consistency of effort throughout a range of sports at Tranby College. Her most prestigious achievements, however have been for swimming. Beth has shown personal mastery in this discipline, challenging herself to improve year after year. Her efforts were rewarded this year with an outstanding performance in the ACC Swimming Carnival.

SERVICE

Beth is a compassionate, generous and sincere person. She has made a notable and consistent contribution to the Service program at Tranby College for some time by becoming involved in a variety of charitable and compassionate events. Beth has shown that she possesses a genuine sense of social justice and a desire to bring about change in the lives of those who need it the most. She is a positive role model and a true advocate. She is most deserving of accolades in the area of Service.

CURRICULUM

Beth is a fine academic role model to other students in the College. She exhibits commitment, determination and persistence in her pursuit of her mastery of knowledge and understanding. She strives for excellence in each of her academic courses and is working very hard towards achieving the challenging goals she has set for herself
