

THE ANNE GRIFFITHS SCHOLARSHIP FOR VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING, 2021

Introduction

Mrs Anne Griffiths retired in 2009 as the Education Policy Officer for the Western Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (WACCI). She had an intense interest in Vocational Education and Training and was instrumental in establishing and sustaining a range of programs that engaged young people in school-based programs that articulated to further training and employment. Mrs Griffiths served on a number of boards of agencies, networks and alliances that managed programs benefitting students.

Mrs Griffiths served for many years on the School Council of Mount Lawley SHS as a community member. She brought to the deliberations of Council her deep breadth of knowledge in Vocational Education and Training, an intense interest in the development of young people and a passion for preparing students for a successful future.

Mrs Griffiths gave much to Mount Lawley SHS despite not being a parent of the school or a local resident. She is an exemplar of commitment and voluntary service.

The Anne Griffiths Scholarship for Vocational Education and Training

The scholarship is tenable to a student undertaking a recognised program that is focused on training and work place learning (WPL). A student awarded the scholarship must be enrolled in an Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) Certificate course and a WPL course or endorsed program. If a student withdraws from one or both components, the scholarship is forfeited.

The student awarded the scholarship will be expected to maintain high standards of behaviour, attend school, training and work regularly and achieve acceptable results.

Value of the Scholarship

The value of the scholarship will be $500 over Years 11 and 12. The scholarship may be expended on course charges, school uniform items (from the Uniform Supplier) or tools, equipment and dress requirements for work placement. Expenditure on the latter category must be approved by the school's Manager, Corporate Services in advance and reimbursement can only be made on the production of relevant receipts.
